

You're not just celebrating by uncorking a vintage bottle of champagne;
you're opening up a world of new possibilities.

You're not just handing over your luxury British Coupé to your son-in-law, you're preparing him for the road ahead.

You're not just buying a new home;
you're buying precious time with your family.

We can help you preserve moments like these.

Introducing TD Insurance Private Client Advice.

A white glove insurance service that appreciates the time it's taken to build your collection of prized assets, which may include everything from cars and properties, to wine, jewelry or art.

We want to safeguard what matters most, by customizing an insurance plan, that protects the extraordinary lifestyle you've worked so hard to build.

Your Dedicated Experienced Advisor and Associate Team are ready to offer you an elevated level of personalized service with a highly responsive approach.

We deliver bespoke Home and Auto Insurance - from our in-house premiere appraisal service to our seamless end-to-end claims experience.

From the finer possessions in your personal life to the finer details of your TD insurance coverage, we want to ensure we offer you the best possible insurance advice every step of the way

Elevate what you expect from insurance with

TD Insurance Private Client Advice.

Learn more at tdinsurance.com/privateclientadvice